REPORTS SAID TO BE CONFIRMED

American Officers Bring Important News from Northeastern Chihuahua.

[Special to The Bryan Eagle.]

El Paso, Texas, Dec. 10.—Confirmation was received here today of the reports of revolutionary activities northeast of Chihuahua, along the Texas border, south of Alpine and Marfa, Texas. Consul Luther Ellsworth, of C. P. Diaz, and United States Immigration Inspector Otto Ming returned to Marfa from places along the border, confirming the reports.

The commander of the insurgents Friday delivered an ultimatum to the mayor of Ojinaga and requested him to send the women and children to Texas "in the name of humanity," as they expected to attack the town. The town is now believed to be in the hands of the rebels.

Over a thousand rebels are concentrated in Mexico and south of Marfa, and several hundred refugees have entered Texas.

Mexican troops which disembarked at Falmir were driven back by insurgents.

[Special to The Bryan Eagle.]

Brownwood, Texas, Dec. 10.—An old tank of the Santa Fe railroad here, used for hauling water, exploded last night, severely injuring Section Foreman Charles Rice, hurling him a hundred feet.

REVERSALS ON TECHNICAL ERRORS

Judge Buck Says Criminals Get More Consideration Than the People.

[Special to The Bryan Eagle.]

Fort Worth, Texas, Dec. 10.—Judge R. H. Buck, of the Forty-eighth district court, declared in an interview today that construction of language magnifying immaterial irregularities and reversals on technical errors make it almost impossible to so conduct a criminal trial in which a conviction will stand.

He declared that criminals get more consideration than the people and the appellate court goes beyond the limits of common sense. He will agitate for a law to remedy the conditions he complains of.
